Navy and Marine Corps Notes.

The selection of the seven brigadier generals in the Marine Corps meets not only with general favor throughout that branch of the service, but is of especial congratulatory interest to Washington society, where all of the officers selected and their families are well known. Col. Charles McCauley, Col. Lauchheimer and Col. Richards have for so many years, especially in the case of the first named officer, been familiar figures in the leading social affairs of the capital.

Mrs. Shoemaker, wife of Capt. William R. Shoemaker, U. S. N., with her daughter, Miss Carolyn Shoemaker, has returned from Lockwood camp, New Hampshire, where they spent the summer. Miss Katherine Shoemaker will remain with her mother and sister until the first week in October, when she will enter Vassar College.

Maj. Gen. W. P. Biddle, U. S. M. C., retired, is spending some time in New York city.

Rear Admiral Adams, U. S. N., retired, with Mrs. Adams, who left Washington in the early summer in their touring car for a trip through New England, will remain at Lake Sunapee, N. H., until October.

Mrs. Goldsborough Adams, daughter-in-law of Rear Admiral and Mrs. Adams, has returned to the city with her son and opened her apartment at the Marlborough for the winter.

Pay Inspector Edmund W. Bonaffon, U. S. N., will be joined at the navy yard the first of October by his wife and family, who have spent the season at Jamestown, R. I.

Capt. William F. Halsey, U. S. N., retired, and Mrs. Halsey have returned to the Marlborough after spending the summer at Cape May.

Miss Frances De Kraft, daughter of the late Commodore De Kraft, U. S. N., left last week for Atlantic City, where she will spend some time with Commander and Mrs. Harrie Webster, who have been there since the early summer.

Lieut. Theodore Wilkinson, U. S. N., has returned to his duties in the bureau of ordnance after a visit of several weeks to his mother at Jamestown, R. I.

Mrs. J. V. Babcock, wife of Lieut. Commander Babcock, U. S. N., accompanied by their two daughters, is visiting relatives in New Hampton, Iowa, after spending the summer at Newport.

Maj. L. M. Gulick, United States Marine Corps, and wife will spend the winter in Washington, as the major has been detached from the 1st Brigade, Haiti, and ordered to resume his duties at the marine barracks in this city. Their return is a matter of pleasure to their many friends here. Maj. Gulick and Capt. Rhoades enjoyed their recent leave by motoring in the former's car from Fort Monroe, Va., to New England.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Reginald Nicholson, who recently returned to their Washington home from Jamestown, R. I., will shortly have a visit from Mrs. James Code, who came east from the Presidio. On her way to Washington Mrs. Code will pay a visit to her son, at West Point.

Mrs. Paul A. Capron, wife of Lieut. Capron, U. S. N., at present attached to the U. S. S. Kansas, has come to Washington for a visit to relatives and is at present the guest of Lieut. Capron's uncle, Col. Webster Vinson, U. S. A., at his country place in Virginia.

Naval Constructor Beirne S. Bullard, U. S. N., and wife, who spent last season in Washington, are now comfortably settled in their new home in Greenway Court, Annapolis.

Lieut. P. H. Torrey, U. S. M. C., and wife have taken an apartment for the season at the Wyanoke, Ghent, Md.

Rear Admiral R. S. Griffin, U. S. N., and Mrs. Griffin are spending the autumn at Atlantic City.

Capt. John R. Edie, U. S. N., retired, who was formerly so well known in Washington, is now in Paris, having gone there from Switzerland.

Rear Admiral Charles T. Hutchins, U. S. N., has returned from Greenport, N. Y., where he passed the summer.

Commodore I. S. K. Reeves, U. S. N., retired, after spending some months in Fredericksburg, Va., has returned to Washington.

Mrs. Cecil B. O'Brien, wife of Assistant Surgeon C. S. O'Brien, U. S. N., is making an extended tour of China, Japan and Ceylon, with Mrs. Bachstrom, wife of Capt. Bachstrom, U. S. M. C., and party.

Fort Myer Notes.

Maj. Fenton, commanding officer Fort Myer, Va., and family who have been spending the summer at Mackinaw Island, Michigan, have returned to Fort Myer.

Mrs. Philip Sheridan, who has been spending part of the summer with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Sheridan at Fort Myer, has returned to her summer home at Nonquit, Mass.

Mrs. McLellan, mother of Mrs. Hunter Scott, was called to St. Louis last week by the death of her brother.

Miss Shirley of Washington, D. C., is on a visit to Mrs. Glasgow.

Lieut. John Milliken, 5th United States Cavalry, has been detailed as military instructor at St. John's College, Annapolis, Md.

The officers of Fort Myer gave a dance at the administration building Friday night.

Miss Harriet Glasgow, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glasgow, has returned from Nonquit, Mass., where she spent the summer.

Whiting-Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Wood announce the marriage of their daughter, Marion Evelyn, and Mr. William S. Whiting, Wednesday evening, September 20, at the residence of Rev. R. E. Jeffries.

The bride wore a smart suit of dark blue taffeta with a purple velvet hat. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. E. W. Markell, as matron of honor, and she wore a blue tailor-made suit with a black velvet hat.

Mr. Edward S. Whiting, Jr., brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Whiting are residing at 1509 Lamont street.

Returns to College.

Miss Marjorie M. Downey of 2478 18th street, who has been motoring through the White mountains with a party of friends, will go to Wellesley tomorrow, where she will take up her college duties for the sophomore year.

Davis-Green.

The marriage of Miss Mamie Green and the Rev. John A. Davis of Washington, D. C., took place Monday, August 28, at the home of the bride's parent, Mr. and Mrs. John Green, on Blackburn avenue, Lexington, Ky., Rev. T. W. Levy of Transylvania College, a classmate of Mr. Davis, officiating.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Davis left for Louisville. Later they will return to Lexington, where Mr. Davis will resume his studies at Transylvania College.
